Cedarville Boy, 2 Xenians Set For Boys State

Two Xenia youths and one Cedarville boy will attend Buckeye Boys' State at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, this year. The ten-day project opens Saturday and continues through Sunday, June 22.

The two Xenians, sponsored by Food-cornwell Post, No. 95, American Legion, and Xenia Rotary Club, are Warren H. (Johnny) Thomas, Jr., and John (Johnny) Baldner.

The Cedarville youth, sponsored by Greene County Vulture, Forty and Eight Society, is John (Johnny) Frey. Under the Forty and Eight's plan, selection of boys rotates by townships and this year choice went to Cedarville.

Boys' State is sponsored annually by the Ohio department of the American Legion. It is not a summer camp, officials point out, but is a ten-day school of government training. Upon their arrival at Delaware, each boy will be enrolled in one of two mythical political parties. After getting settled, he may begin campaigning for a public office, subject to a state position, and to a party convention selection if he votes of more than 800 citizens in the "state" on Monday, June 16.

Speakers during the week will include Thomas J. Herbert, U. S. Gov. Paul Herbert, Ohio Justice Carl V. Wright; Mayor James Rhodes, Columbus; Don W. Schoppa, state commander of the American Legion; Congressman John M. Vorys, and A. E. Ostholtoff, Cincinnati, investigator for the federal bureau of investigation.

"Legion night" will be observed Friday and visitors' day will be Sunday.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Thomas, Park drive, and will be a senior at Central high school next year. He is 17 and is active in sports and vocal music. He played on the American Legion's baseball team in 1946. He is president of the Central Hi-Y club and is a member of the Greene county chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Baldner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Baldner, Park drive. He also is 17 and will be a senior at Central next year. He was president of the junior class at Central last year and was substitute player on Central's football team last fall. He also played with the American Legion baseball nine in 1946. Sports and mechanics are his hobbies. He is a member of the Central Hi-Y and the DeMolay chapters.

Frey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Frey, Cedarville, is 17 and will be a senior at Cedarville high school next fall. A member of his class in his sophomore year and was vice president of the junior class. A native of Springfield, he has resided in Cedarville five years. ## Lawrence Released Under $5000 Bond Harold M. Lawrence, 36, Springfield, former Fairfield and Springfield automobile dealer, has been released from Clark county jail under $5,000 bond.

Lawrence, charged with issuing checks with insufficient funds, was held in jail nearly two months. His case will be presented to a Clark county grand jury scheduled to meet next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Real estate totalling $20,000 in value was certified by three Springfield residents in furnishing Lawrence's bond.

Lawrence was the object of a search by authorities for several weeks before he surrendered voluntarily April 17. A sheriff's sale of seventeen autos and a truck at Lawrence's sales lot in Springfield was ordered by Common Pleas Judge Golden C. Davis, of Clark county, to satisfy a judgment for Lawrence's creditors.

Anyone with a dump truck willing to help with the hauling should contact Arthur Cullice.

Only One Fess Sponsored Bill Is Enacted

Unless given a "green light" in the legislative race down the home stretch, all but one of a dozen bills introduced or cosponsored by Rep. Lowell Fess (R-Greene county), may be sidetracked at the present session of the 97th Ohio general assembly.

One Fess-authored measure has been enacted into a law that will become effective next August 27. Approved by both branches of the state legislature and signed by the governor, it is a bill to increase from $10-6 to $20-10 the daily compensation and expense allowances of judges holding court outside their county of residence.

Owing to an agreement by house and senate leaders to end working sessions of the assembly June 14 and adjourn formally June 30, other pieces of Fess legislation may be lost in the final rush to beat the deadline.

Here is the status of pending Fess measures:

(1) To amend sections of the general code relative to limiting the jurisdiction of marshals and deputy marshals to arrest without a warrant, for misdemeanors; to the territorial limits of the village to which he is appointed or elected. (no action).

(2) To amend a section of the general code by reclassifying quail as a bird instead of a song bird, recommended by house conservation committee after public hearings for and against.

(3) To enact a law to prevent and eliminate the practice of discrimination in employment against persons because of race, religious creed, color, etc., and to create a commission to enforce same. (no action).

(4) To provide for a basic work week of certain employees of the state highway patrol and of institutions in the department of public welfare. (second house reading; sent to highway committee).

(5) To define the jurisdiction of courts in cases involving labor disputes, and for other purposes. (no action).

(6) To amend a section of law relating to the salary of the executive secretary of the Ohio Development and Publicity Commission. (second reading; sent to committee on state government organization).

(7) To provide for the department of conservation to acquire land in Beaver creek township for impounding water and creating a state park. (no action).

(8) To amend a section of law relative to the examination of public guarantee trust companies. (second reading; sent to committee on financial institutions).

(9) To amend a section of law to reimburse the state auditor for expense in garnishment proceedings. (no action).

(10) To provide caboose for freight trains. (second reading; sent to commerce and transportation committee).

(11) To amend a law relating to parking vehicles on the highways and to repeal an existing section. (no action).

Former Stage Star, Now with Chakares In Springfield, Living in Cedarville

From leading roles in many Broadway stage plays, William M. Garner has turned to the business end of the motion picture industry, and has settled in Springfield to accomplish his purpose. His new position is that of assistant bookkeeper for Chakares Theaters, Inc.

For the present he and Mrs. Garner are making their home with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lynch in Cedarville.

At the age of 15, Mr. Garner made his debut on the legitimate theater stage when he played a role with the St. Louis municipal opera in the famous Forest park outdoor amphitheater.

Prior to his service during the war, he played leading roles in such stage hits as "The Rose," "Band Wagon," "The Great Waltz," St. Helena, "Winter set," "High Tor," and "The Star Wagon."

In 1941, he went into the army as a private and four years later served as a major. Meantime, he served with the sixth division in

No Indictments Returned by Special Jury

A grand jury summoned especially to investigate gambling in Greene county found no evidence on which to support indictments. The May jury recalled in special session May 29 made its report Monday morning following a two-week recess during which the prosecutor's office hoped to obtain additional testimony.

The jury not only did not return any true bills. It indicated that law enforcement facilities are sufficient to handle any such violations and it agreed that any violations here were slight in comparison with that of other communities.

The grand jury reported: The grand jury was presented all available evidence in its investigation as to alleged gambling violations in the county. A number of witnesses subpoenaed were county, city and other municipal officers and law enforcement officials.

Full inquiry was made concerning the place known as "Oak Grove Country club" reported to have commenced operation on May 8, 1947 under guise of a private club and where gambling violations were charged to exist. Prompt action was taken by the officials to suppress the same and whatever violation of law that may have existed, if there was such, was of short duration and has ceased. The evidence submitted was insufficient to warrant the returning of true bills.

The grand jury recognizes the means available to suppress and prevent any infraction of the gambling laws by those who attempt to violate the same.

The grand jury finds that any commercial gambling that may have been existed is at a minimum in comparison with other communities and so far as the evidence discloses there is none at the present.

The report was signed by H. C. Aultman, Xenia, as foreman of the jury.

The gambling probe was precipitated by charges published in Dayton newspapers that the Oak Grove club had opened up May 8 with open gambling.

Sheriff Walton Spahr, who had visited the club several times and was not admitted, raided the club armed with a search warrant, handed him by Prosecutor Marcus Shoup. The officers said there was no paraphernalia available on which to base charges but he arrested Vernon Locke, 43, said to be assistant manager of the food department.

Locke was freed on $500 bond and his case was referred to the grand jury. Failure to bring a true bill against him will mean that he is now free of any charges.

When the grand jury was summoned at the call of Common Pleas Judge P. L. Johnson, he appointed, with the approval of the prosecutor, H. A. Mau, Cincinnati, as special assistant prosecutor. Mr. Mau is a former prosecutor of Montgomery county and former U. S. district attorney for southern Ohio.

He was present during both sessions of the grand jury inquiry. At the first session a number of newspapermen who had claimed there was gambling at the Oak Grove club, were heard.

Walton Spahr, four of his deputies and a Xenia minister were tied, six Greene County police summoned.

The police chiefs who testified were Howard Wright of Jamestown, J. S. McCain of Osborn, Elias Quinn of Fairfield, William Day of Yellow Springs, Fred Ewry of Cedarville and Stanley Nickell of Xenia.

Also heard were Deputies Homer Spahr, Fred Lewis, Wesley Harris and J. R. Ramon, and Mr. J. Russell Dugan, president of the Xenia-Greene County Ministerial association.

Dorcas Jobe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Jobe is at the home of her parents after finishing her school term at Southern Seminary, Buena Vista, Va.

C., where empire medal for meritorious service with the intelligence division of the army in the China-Burma-India theater during World War II.

The presentation was made by Lord Inverchapel, British ambassador to the United States, at ceremonies in the auditorium of the department of the interior building May 9. Mrs. Warren Powers and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lord, of Delaware witnessed the ceremony.

The citation stated: "Technician Powers was employed in the intelligence division headquarters, supreme allied commander, southwest Asia, on Delhi and Kandy from November, 1943, until November, 1945. For a considerable part of this time he was in charge of secretarial work connected with the intelligence section of operations which was responsible for the production of a large number of dossiers for force commanders. This duty entailed a considerable amount of organizing ability, exceptionally high standards of accuracy, a task made more difficult by shortages of material and staff."

Technician Powers' execution of his duties was outstanding, setting a fine example for his staff. His enthusiasm and cheerfulness, which he came in contact with, were an inspiration to those with whom he worked. His contribution to the work of an important section of intelligence division was a vital factor to its success."

Powers entered the army in May, 1942, after graduation from Ohio Wesleyan university and received his discharge February 1, 1946. He is now with the Columbus district office of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company.

Mrs. Roland Cahill, instructor in Dayton schools and a resident of Cedarville, talked at the regular monthly meeting of the Progressive club which was held Monday evening at the Old Mill Camp.

She stressed the need for various types of equipment for a playground program. Mrs. Cahill stated that there should be equipment for children of all ages and the need for a trained supervisor to operate the playground program.

M. C. Charles, park board treasurer, reported that the board had approximately $40 in the treasury and that Walter W. Boyer had donated a flag pole for the park.

He also stated that the board had approved the plan of putting a basement under the proposed shelter house at the park. This, he pointed out, would add about $800 to its cost, but would provide a garage for the truck and storage space for various equipment.

The board is having the plans drawn and they will be presented for final approval at a joint meeting of the American Legion and the Progressive club, the two sponsoring organizations of the park.

Mendell E. Beattie, chairman of the club's educational committee, reported that Cedarville college would have a record enrollment of better than 300 students next fall provided the necessary housing arrangements could be made.

Checking of Cars Will Begin on July First

Col. George Mingle, superintendent of the state highway patrol, and Police Chief Lester W. Merica president of the Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police announced jointly Wednesday a thirty-one day program to check mechanical defects in autos will begin July 1.

Under the plan, officers who stop drivers for warnings or on violations, will check autos for proper brakes, horns, windshield wipers, headlights, tail and stop lights, steering, and rear view mirrors.

Last year Ohio led the nation in the number of autos checked when 273,100 cars were inspected. Of this number, 25 per cent needed correction.

Summer Term Enrollment Large at College

The summer term at Cedarville college opened Monday with indications pointing to a record enrollment, the dean of the school, Professor A. J. Hostetler, indicated.

The regular faculty will be retained for the summer period, he said, and in addition Mrs. Bertha Nixon of Arcanum will be guest instructor in the field of elementary education. Professor C. R. Dodd of Taylor University will give a course in physical education and will be assisted by Coach Mendell Beattie of the college staff.

Dean Hostetler, a recognized authority in teaching training and education, said that at no time has the teacher shortage situation been more acute than at present.

The summer director said the greatest single factor that has retarded any relief of the situation in Ohio has been the consideration on the part of the state legislature of the Daniels-Cramer school aid bill.

"As long as teachers are not assured an adequate salary, naturally young people will not turn toward the teaching profession," he said.

Dean Hostetler said that although a definite schedule of courses has already been arranged, the summer courses will be elastic in nature to adjust the studies to the needs of the variety of summer students.

The summer term is divided into two sessions, each of five weeks duration. In addition, there will be Saturday classes as well as a week day session. The second period will open July 14 and summer commencement exercises will be held at the end of the second and five weeks' term.

It is of simple, gable-roof design and about as fireproof as such buildings get to be. The materials and workmanship are the best obtainable. It promises to be a substantial, neat, functional building that will serve the public well.

The need for this system, connected with the city sewage system, has been felt for many years. The definite planning of this accomplishment began several years ago. Now that building has opened up a little, it was thought best to go on with these plans. The fair board is more than delighted to be able to complete this long promised project.

Immunization, Vaccination Urged by Dept.

Many of the schools in Greene county and all of the schools in Xenia city require immunization for diphtheria and vaccination for smallpox. The health department, therefore, urges all parents to have this done as soon as possible. Children who have never had whooping cough should also be immunized against this disease. Children who have been immunized for diphtheria and whooping cough, but not within the last two years should receive booster doses of toxoid for these diseases. It requires two or three months to complete immunization, so the procedure should be started at once. At our preschool conference we found surprisingly few children immunized and vaccinated (Xenia excepted). We are certainly asking for trouble. If your child has these diseases the responsibility is yours. Parents who read this cannot offer the plea of ignorance.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harphand and son have moved from the Rhubert up state to their newly built home in Clifton.

Private services were conducted at the Nagley funeral home Tuesday at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. R. N. Chapman, Xenia. Burial was in New Burlington cemetery.

The Editor . . Edits

Maybe he should entitle this: It Wasn't that kind of a Kitty, or Doc Kyle and Bill Marshall Escort Woods Pussy Out of Town.

We were still just a bit bleary eyed from having over slept Saturday morning and hurrying downtown as we passed Bill Marshall's Standard Oil station and we were taken quite by surprise to see the good doctor throwing sticks along the fence. (Thought maybe he was having 'em at us as we passed but didn't quite think the paper was that bad.)

Then all of a sudden we saw the trouble. It was a small black animal with white stripes. A skunk. In case anyone doesn't know it, another way of spelling trouble.

Doc Kyle was tossing sticks well back of the little animal to keep him moving. We would venture to say he wasn't trying to hit him. That would have been bad.

We passed on by and on returning from the postoffice Bill and Doc had got the animal out of their vicinity. Next thing we knew he was out in Main street.

Those standing along the sidewalk seemed to be trying to become part of the buildings and were giving the animal a wide berth.

This almost came to naught as a motorist came through the traffic light and was volting on his hind wheels. He was really unaware of what was in the street.

Then came the screeching of brakes. He missed him. The noise made the little fellow move on faster and when last seen he was going down the alley toward the lumber yard.

Apparently he ran into no further difficulties because there was no evidence to the contrary to meet the nostrils.

Mendell E. (Just Call Me Housing Expediter) Beattie says Prexy Vaughn has been volting on such title on him. And he's really got a problem. The applications for students at the college are growing with leaps and bounds.

Beattie tells us they will have over 300 and maybe 400 enrolled for next fall. They are really catching. They need some place to put all of these people. They are trying to get additional surplus buildings from the government, but even if they get that they will still need all of the housing for students that they are taking and scrape together. So, if anyone knows of any available room let the expiditer know of it, pronto.

Well maybe the rains subsided long enough to get some corn planted. As this is written (Wednesday afternoon) we've had some nice hot, dry days and the farmers got right on the job the minute they could get into a field and get their corn in. Say, the wheat looks nice. Yes indeed.

We have been informed that we made a slight error last week in writing the story about the bakery. Oscar Lee Allender, who had managed the bakery for some time, is part owner of the bakery with Owens, instead of just being the manager.

The town didn't die Wednesday afternoon. The town always is "dead" Wednesday afternoon when the business houses all close up. And it even smelled like it died this week. In fact it smelled like it had been dead for about a month. But it was just a fertilizer truck that blew a couple of barrels and dribbled stuff the rest of the way through town.

We thought at first Stinky the Mad Russian was back with us. OUT OF THE BIG ROUND FILE—The waste basket has been kept full by the following for the past several weeks, but we don't know of anything that was really worth mentioning here.

Soybeans can be planted safely for grain as late as June 20 to July 1. Delayed planting does not affect soybean yields as seriously as it does corn yields.

Fertilizer Will Help Garden
Late-planted gardens this spring can well be given a "shot in the arm" by using a liberal amount of garden fertilizer. A handful of 4-12-8 analysis, usually recommended for gardens, is sufficient for 10 feet of row.

JUDAH'S APPROACHING DOOM

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 36:2, 3, 23-31; II Kings 24:1-4.
MEMORY SELECTION—The fear of the Lord prolongeth days; but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.—Proverbs 10:27.

The decline of a nation from strength and glory to weakness and shame is always a sad thing to contemplate. Still worse is the evidence of such decay in the sinfulness of the people and their stubborn rejection of God's mercy and grace.

The religious reforms in Judah under Josiah were only temporary in their effect on the people; partly because of their own insincerity; and partly because Josiah was soon dead in battle. Yet God did not leave his wandering people without good counsel, for it was in those days that the great prophet Jeremiah ministered.

He had been the helper of Josiah in his good purposes; now he continued to plead with Judah to submit themselves to God and to his will.

His efforts proved to be fruitless, for as Josiah was concerned, for the people were not.

I. Judah Would Not Respond to God's Mercy (Jer. 36:2, 3).
God commanded his prophet to write down his words in order that the people might not only know the inevitable impending judgment, but especially be reminded of God's desire that they should turn from their evil ways and be forgiven.

One would have thought that they would have responded to such mercy with an immediate and grateful return to the Lord, but they did not.

Jeremiah, a unique man of great ability, was so endeared to the king that he has often been called the weeping prophet. Do not infer that he was a weak, emotional character, for he was strong in the Lord, and courageous in the face of rejection and persecution. He urged upon Judah the necessity of submitting to Babylon, to whom God had given power, and above all to the Lord, for a spiritual cleansing and revival.

Our second section brings before us the further sin of King Jehoiakim, who led his nation on to destruction. We see that

II. Judah Would Not Receive God's Word (Jer. 36:23-31).
At God's command Jeremiah and his scribe Baruch had prepared the scroll with God's Word upon it. One of the nation's leaders was moved by it, and through his urging, the scroll was brought to the attention of the king.

Jehoiakim, sitting before the fire, heard only part of it, and then in defiance of God he took a penknife and cut it up and burned it.

One cannot help but think of those in our day who call themselves modern thinkers, or liberals, who have also used their penknives on God's Word. They cut out of the Bible everything they do not like, and offer the hungry people the stone of their own philosophies in place of the Bread of Life. Think what their judgment will be!

God's Word is not so easily gotten out of the way! The prophet was commanded to rewrite the scroll, and in it to declare the awful judgment of God upon the one who mutilated his Word.

To try to destroy God's truth by fire and violence is as fruitless as to try to tear the stars from the heavens or to keep the sun from shining. The wicked leaders of a great nation have tried that once more in recent years, and they now lie dead for their sins, with the nation a subject people, broken and all but destroyed.

While there is a shortage of regular commercial fertilizer, stocks of prepared garden fertilizer seem to be adequate.

Clifton

4 H Club News
The Clifton 4H girls club, Happy Workers, held their last meeting at home of Martha and Connie Ann Swaby. Eighteen members and one leader answered the roll call.

The forthcoming 4 H club tour was announced and discussed. Joan Sheely was placed in charge of reservations. The girls also discussed the current safety campaign in Green county and decided to interview their own family and one other concerning farm accidents during the first four months of 1947.

Final arrangements were completed for the girls departure for Indian lake on Sunday, June 8, where the girls will spend a week. The club finances this annual vacation for all members who care to go. Twenty girls will enjoy the privilege this year. Mrs. Geo. Braley, Mrs. Rama Campbell, and Mrs. Ruth Cromwell will assist Mrs. Mary Mott, leader, with the chaperoning duties.

While there, the girls will conduct six baking demonstrations and work on feltcraft. Their week's program will include: swimming, skating, baseball, campfire, shows and one evening at Russell's Point.

At the conclusion of their business meeting the girls demonstrated the baking of nut bread. The team consisted of Martha Swaby, chairman; Rebecca Cromwell, Margie Cromwell, Jane Harris, and Norma Horney.

On May 31 the combined Clifton boys and girls clubs sponsored a lawn party at Clifton which netted each club approximately $25.00. We wish to publicly thank all who helped to make this special project a success.

June 3-11 the girls conducted a scrap drive which added $28.56 to their treasury.

The demonstration team for baking at the lake will consist of: Joan Sheely and Clara Sexton co-chairman; Emily Swanton, Catherine Heck, Carol Spahr, Carole Campbell, Sue Buffenbarger, Ruth Ann Carroll, Norma Horney.

The next regular meeting of club will be June 16 at the home of Nancy and Jane Harris where the baking will be the making of strawberry shortcake.

At the Courthouse

Masked Bandit Strikes Again At Huffman Dam

A "masked bandit" who apparently is dividing his activities between Greene and Montgomery counties, staged an armed holdup robbery early Saturday morning at the entrance to Huffman dam state park on Route 69, the sheriff's office reported.

A description of the robber, given Montgomery county deputies by a young Dayton couple robbed at that supplied by two victims of the Huffman Dam holdup.

The two robbed at the park entrance—Ralph Lucas, 26, and Mary May, 21, both of Dayton—disclosed that a disguised man approached their parked car between 3 and 4 a. m. after having stopped his auto about 100 feet ahead.

Brandishing a revolver, he warned: "This is a holdup! Give me your money, purse and jewelry and be fast about it. Don't make any outcry or resistance or I'll shoot—I mean business!"

The Daytonians said they surrendered two gold watches, about $65 in cash, a driver's license and an auto registration card.

After entering the Lucas car, the robber ordered him to drive down the road a short distance, after which he stepped from the auto and told the couple to continue on without turning back.

The two immediately reported to Osborn authorities who notified the sheriff's office here, Deputy Sheriff James Ramsey said. "rough" speaker, is said to be about 26 and a six-footer. His face was covered to the eyes with a white handkerchief, his victims said.

The robber is believed to be the same man who robbed a couple within thirty yards of the scene of Saturday's holdup, a few weeks ago.

CLARENCE J. BROWN Writes With a Buckeye In Congress

Member of Congress Seventh Ohio District

On last Wednesday afternoon congressional messengers placed upon the president's desk the new tax bill, as enacted by the 80th congress, for his approval or veto. Under the constitution the president has ten days, or until Monday midnight, to either sign or veto the measure. Otherwise it will become law without his signature. While the president has announced he has not yet reached any decision on the matter, predictions are freely made that he will veto the tax bill. If so there is little likelihood that the two to one vote necessary to enact the measure into law over the president's veto can be obtained in congress. In other words, a presidential veto will mean no tax reduction this year.

Congress has also completed legislative action on the omnibus labor reform bill and sent it to the White House for approval or veto. The president will have until Thursday of next week to take action on the measure. Most observers believe—with a coal strike threatening for July 1—the president will either sign the measure or permit it to become law without his signature. However, if the president does see fit to veto the new labor bill it appears that the two to one vote necessary to enact the measure into law, notwithstanding the objections of the president, can be obtained in both the house and senate. The new labor bill, as reported by the conference committee, was approved by the house last Wednesday by a vote of 820 to 79, or by a margin of more than four to one, which indicates the strong legislative support behind the measure.

Back in early March, when the president sent his message to congress asking for a four hun-dered million dollar appropriation to furnish relief and military aid to Greece and Turkey, he demanded approval of the measure by March 31, saying if action was not taken by that time these two countries would be in danger of communist aggression from without. The congress did not approve the Greek-Turkish loan legislation until the middle of

May. As this is written, more than two months after the dead line fixed by the president for congressional approval of the Greek-Turkish loan has passed, the administration has not yet completed arrangements to make the loan effective, or named the officials to be in charge of the aid program. In the meantime the danger of Russian aggression against Greece and Turkey has become no greater, although a communist group, supported by Russia has taken over the government of Hungary.

Incidentally, the debate on the Italian peace treaty in the senate last week developed that famous document which had been approved by the United States, Germany, Britain, France and Russia, at the Paris peace conference, will require Italy to forfeit the border between Italy and Yugoslavia, thus leaving her open to an easy attack and conquest by Tito and his Communist armies.

The treaty would also provide for turning over all coal mines, hydro-electric power plants and other important industrial property in northern Italy to the Yugoslavs. Future Italian reparation payments to Russia will undoubtedly either have to be financed by loans from the world bank—which is mainly supported by the United States—or from money advanced to the Italian government by this nation.

The next foreign loan authorization congress will be asked to approve is expected to be for Korea, in the amount of some seventy-eight million dollars, to help take care of
